

Dashing from the malls
With groceries yet to buy,
Work & kids & life,
It's all so crazy! Why?

Our cell phones ring again,
Machine will take the call,
We have no time for anything,
It drives us up the wall.

How are you?
How's your life?
We really want to know.
Christmas Day is almost here,
Maybe it will snow!

A day or two ago,
We thought we'd make a treat,
For all our special friends—
A Christmas gift to eat!

Intentions were top notch,
But schedules would not budge,
So, here's this year's edition of our homemade
CHRISTMAS FUDGE!
