

Dashing from the malls
With groceries yet to buy,
Work & kids & housekeeping,
Life's so crazy! Why?

Our cell phones ring again,
The machine will take the call,
We have no time for social things,
It drives us up the wall.

How are you? How's your life?
We really want to know.
Hope you're ready for Christmas,
Now maybe it will snow.

A day or two ago,
We thought we'd make a treat,
For all our special friends--
A Christmas gift to eat!

Our intentions were top notch,
But our schedules would not budge,
So, here's this year's edition of homemade
CHRISTMAS FUDGE!
